NOTE: this is the Free version of Growththink's Ultimate Retail Business Plan Template. Much of the information from the paid version, including the integrated financial graphs and charts have been removed from this version.

The real version of Growththink's Ultimate Retail Business Plan Template is much more than a fill-in-the-blanks template.

That template professionally guides you step-by-step so you can quickly, easily and expertly complete your business plan.

Perhaps most importantly, it includes complete financial projections. You simply enter some numbers (for example the # of products/services you expect to sell and the price), and Growththink's Ultimate Retail Business Plan Template automatically builds your 5-year Income Statement, Balance Sheet and Cash Flow Statement. This service alone would cost thousands of dollars if you hired an accountant to complete it for you.

The following industry size facts and statistics bode well for [Company Name].

According to Research and Markets' Household Furniture Consumption report, the US retail furniture market is estimated at $78.5 billion. This translates to roughly $260 annual furniture spend per capita for Americans. At manufacturer's prices the market is estimated at $30.7 billion. The report says that "over the last two decades household furniture purchases increased significantly from $29.3 billion to $78.5 billion, or 168%. In other words, sales increased at an average annual pace of approximately 5.5% over the period."

The current contraction in home sales is causing furniture sales to decrease temporarily. However, home sales are expected by most analysts to be on the rise again by the time [Company Name] is launched.

The following statistics are from Research and Markets' report and other sources.

- "38.0% is wooden case-goods (mainly bedroom furniture), 33.9% is upholstered furniture (mainly chesterfields and matching chairs), 17.1% is mattresses and foundations, and the remaining 11.0% is metal furniture (mainly outdoor furniture)."
- "The number of households in the United States will grow by about 12.5% over the next decade (that is about 1.2% per year). This pace is a bit faster than the 8.0% pace for the total population."
- Buying local products reduces pollution, bolsters the local economy, and contributes to the attainment of higher living standards for one's community.
